

Terms and Conditions

1. Acceptance of Terms

By visiting and using the website of Deep Electric Inc.—a company providing electrical and lighting repair, replacement, and maintenance services—you agree to follow the Terms and Conditions listed below. If you do not agree with any of these terms, please do not use our website.

2. Use of Website

All content on this website—including text, images, logos, and graphics—is owned by Deep Electric or our content providers and is protected by copyright laws. You may not copy, change, or share any of the website content without our written permission.

3. User Conduct

You agree not to use this website for any illegal or unauthorized activities. Your use of the site must comply with all applicable laws and these Terms and Conditions.

4. Service Scheduling and Payment

To schedule a repair, replacement, or installation, you can book an appointment through our website or by calling our customer service team. Unless we've made a different arrangement in writing, payment is due in full once the service is completed.

5. Disclaimer of Warranties

While we do our best to provide accurate and up-to-date information, Deep Electric does not guarantee the reliability, accuracy, or availability of anything found on this website. All content and services are provided “as is” without warranties of any kind.

6. Limitation of Liability

Deep Electric is not responsible for any damages—whether direct, indirect, incidental, or otherwise—that may result from your use of our website or services.

7. Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms and Conditions at any time. If we make significant changes, we'll do our best to notify users at least 30 days in advance.

8. Governing Law

These Terms and Conditions are governed by the laws of the United States and the State of Florida. By using our website, you agree to resolve any legal matters in the courts located in Florida.
